We've NEVER been SO insulted in our LIFE!

Imagine our embarrassment when from our box at the late lamented prom, we saw the flood of Razz Berries sweep down the floor at the rate of five hundred in three minutes, and buying two copies for the well-known two bits, we found ourselves declared both the editor and columnist of that sheet. We indignantly deny both allegations.

This impostor who pretended to write our stuff makes his paragraphs so long, he uses too many references, and in general, is a much better bluffer than we are. We try to tell the truth.

Speaking of the prom reminds us that one prominent fraternity man complained bitterly to the heads of the Hatchet because that publication mentioned corsages too often in its columns, which fact cost him $3.50. He even threatened to send a bill to the Hatchet.

Bucky, engaged three orchestras for the prom, but a reporter covering the Pan-Hel prom advance dopes says, "Three hundred ballrooms will float down on the gathering." Wonder what the building inspectors will say about this?

Our personal investigator went to a rehearsal of the choruses for "Sometime Soon," and reports that when the tall chorus finishes prancing, and the building stops reverberating, one can still see the stage prop quivering in front of the panting co-eds. Dancing, like live-savers, seems to take their breath away. The middle-sized bear, er, excuse us, we meant chorus, is pretty good, and the little chorus is right hot.

Everybody is packing up his grip in preparation for a jaunt somewhere beginning Thursday night or Friday morning. Some are going home, and those who are at home already are planning to go away from home. Several pilgrimages are being organized to go to New York, see all the good shows, and then return home to study, knowing that they have seen everything worth while that will come to town for the next six months.

The grudge match between Phi Sig and T. U. O. has fallen through. Either one side or the other wouldn't put up enough cash to bribe the other side to lose. Fifty dollars was the demand, and everybody knows that no fraternity possesses that much money, particularly before pay day.

George Washington will be jammed with Deans of Men in April when the annual convention meets here to hear Dean Doyle tell 'em why college men and women are not collegiate, and other things. Washington is becoming a regular Mecca for conventions, and G. W. seems to have the urge. First thing you know, the Hatchet will sponsor a convention of some kind or other.

"Does it Pay to Study?" inquires an editorial. Why ask such fool questions when tomorrow is the last day of school until April 8? Who cares?

Spring training in football is to get under way soon. We have high hopes for next year, and they ought to be fulfilled with all the freshmen who passed coming out to prepare.

Pi Phi and Chi O lead in the bridge tournament. Gamma Beta ought to step out if it wants to make up the third member of the triumvirate.

According to information which we have received, just one person was present when the men's varsity debating team met its rival last week. This victim was made time-keeper, and ten gamins were imported to furnish the gathering with judges.

All of it was caused by the fact that the same three men say the same three ways in every debate of the season. No wonder debating audiences are small.

Emeritus professors were honored recently by a luncheon, with a specially printed program giving their records. Imposing things, those records. Records of service. The Hatchet is going to print 'em and the pictures of the men sometime soon. The luncheon was a gracious gesture on the part of the University.

APRIL 12 CHOSEN FOR TRYOUT FOR ORATORICAL TEST

Initial Competition Planned To Be Held In Corcoran Hall

G. W. REPRESENTATIVE TO COMPETE IN D. C. TRIALS

Only Undergraduate Students Without Degrees Eligible For National Contest For Large Prizes

The local oratorical contest to select a representative from George Washington University to compete with representatives from other colleges of the District in a later contest, will be held in Room 4, Corcoran Hall, Friday evening, April 12, at eight o'clock. The subject must be one relating to the Constitution, and information in detail may be had by any one interested by seeing Professor Arnold in his office in Stockton Hall. Several have already signified an intention to enter, and indications now are that it will be a large program.

It is the intention to select judges who have no present connection with the University so that impartiality may be insured. The contestants must appear seasonably before the program and draw for places on the program, and they will speak in the order in which numbers are drawn. No speaker can exceed ten minutes. This regulation will be strictly observed in accordance with the printed requirements that when "time up" is announced, the speaker, under such conditions, must stop without another word. If, however, he does not stop immediately, he is automatically to be placed last. The judges will be instructed to observe this regulation.

Orations Judged at Delivery. The orations will not be studied in written form by the judges, but they will pass upon delivery and composition while the orations are being delivered. Composition and delivery will be given equal importance by the judges. The judges will consult to determine the winner and his alternate.

The winner of the local contest will speak again in the contest to be held in the District during April. This contest will consist of a program by representatives from all Universities in the District. The winner from the District will speak in the regional finals to be held about May 1. The student who wins all these contests will appear at the National final contest to be held in Los Angeles, June 20, where there will be seven contestants. No traveling expenses are awarded to any winner, but each one of the seven participants in the Los Angeles contest will receive a prize ranging from $350 to $1,500.

Only Undergraduates Eligible

Any bona fide undergraduate student of George Washington is eligible to enter the contest on April 12. Any student who has received a degree, diploma or certificate of graduation from George Washington, or any other institution of higher learning, is not an undergraduate, and therefore is ineligible. Students in any of the professional schools are eligible, provided they have not received a degree, diploma or certificate of graduation from any institution of higher learning in the United States or abroad.

Qualified students who intend to enter this oratorical contest, should see Professor Arnold at once. Those students who do not expect to be in the contest should put the evening of April 12 on the calendar and hear what promises to be one of the important University events of the year.

Forensic Fraternity Offers Gold Medal

Pi Delta Gamma to Give Trophy to Oratorical Contest Winner

Pi Delta Gamma, men's national honorary forensic fraternity, has offered to the University a gold medal to be presented to the local winner of the national intercollegiate oratorical contest.

This contest which is held every year has attracted wide local interest and it is with the hope of sustaining and increasing this interest that the local chapter of Pi Delta Gamma has tendered this added reward. According to Raymond Crowell, secretary-treasurer of the local chapter, the medal which is to be inscribed with the winner's name, will be presented annually to the winner each year in which the local contest takes place.

The organization is awaiting formal acceptance of the award which, according to a letter from President Marvin is assured.

TROUBADOUR TRYOUTS

Tryouts for part in the Men's Chorus of the Troubadour production will be held in Corcoran Hall 1, on Friday, March 29, at 8 o'clock.

Applicants for positions on the technical staff of the Troubadours will meet in Corcoran Hall 17, on Thursday, March 28, at 8 o'clock.

PANHEL DANCE WILL BE NOVEL

McWilliams Ten Piece Orchestra To Provide Music This Year

BALLOON DANCE PROMISED

Intersorority Prizes to be Awarded; Petticoat, Gamma Eta Zeta Sheet Will Appear

Marjorie Bowman, Chairman of the Panhellenic Prom Committee announces that a mistake occurred in the engagement of the orchestra and instead of having Dagmar Music as previously announced, McWilliams Orchestra will furnish the music for the occasion. The orchestra will be composed of ten pieces, and gives promise of vying with honors for music with the much heralded orchestras of the Interfraternity Prom.

An innovation will be introduced this year in a balloon dance. Near 12 o'clock, over 300 balloons will be drifted down on the couples.

Special Entertainment. There will be entertainment in the form of musical and dance sketches from the Troubadour Production "Sometime Soon." This should be a drawing card in itself as this show is not to be given until sometime in May.

During intermission the awarding of cups will take place.

Gamma Beta Pi will receive the cup for the Basketball Championship and a bridge cup will be awarded to the winner of the Intersorority Bridge Tournament which is in the final round now.

As usual there will be no favors, but the attractive programs will be saved by many as mementos of this gala affair.

To add to the levity of the occasion the Petticoat, the scandal sheet edited by Gamma Eta Zeta will be sold, and much dirt will be printed if this sheet lives up to its former record.

Interfrat Prom Proves Outstanding Event of University Social Season

Big Event at Willard Hotel is Featured by Competitions Between Three Orchestras; Palace Theatre Musicians are of Greatest Interest; Phi Sigma Kappa Wins Scholarship Cup

Records were broken for attendance and enthusiasm last Friday night, March 22, when the Interfraternity Prom, and the brilliant affair so far in this year's George Washington social season, was held in the grand ballroom of the Willard Hotel from ten until two, under the auspices of the Interfraternity Council.

Three orchestras played for the event. Of these, perhaps the most sensational was the Palace Theatre orchestra, led for the evening by Boyd Senter, taking the place of Wesley Eddy, who because of illness was unable to officiate. Senter's playing capped the climax. He has been playing an engagement at the Palace Theatre and packing in the crowds with his clarinet. The other orchestras were Emory Daugherty's Lido band, and the Aster band, the former of which played for the early part of the evening. To say that Boyd Senter was sensational does not disparage the other orchestras, which were most adequate.

By eleven o'clock the ballroom was well filled, and in spite of the oppressively warm weather, much enthusiasm was evidenced. The remark in the Razz Berry about the heat seemed for once to have hit the nail on the head, but everyone seemed to be enjoying himself.

Herzog Leads March

Shortly after twelve the grand march began, led by Henry Wm. Herzog, chairman of the social committee of the Interfraternity Council, and representative of Theta Upsilon Omega, accompanied by Emily Pilkinton. After them came Harold O. Farmer of Sigma Nu and Mildred Burnham, followed by the other members of the social committee, and then by the entire Council. The guests of the prom followed. Favors were then distributed by George von Dachenhausen, president of the Council, and Maude Hudson.

Immediately afterward came the presentation of the athletic cups and the announcement of the scholarship averages. First, the baseball cups for last

DAVIS SPEAKING CONTEST IS SET FOR NEXT MONTH

Thirty Dollars in Three Prizes Offered to George Washington Seniors

CONTESTANTS REQUIRED TO NOTIFY ENGLISH DEPT.

Prizes Founded in 1847; Contest Looked Forward to by Seniors

The annual Davis Prize Speaking contest will be held on Friday evening, April 26, in Corcoran Hall. Only members of the Senior Class will be eligible to compete. The prizes are in gold, as follows: First prize, $15; second prize, $10; third prize, $5. The prizes will be awarded by a committee of three members, appointed by the Department of English.

The orations are to be ten minutes long. Students wishing to enter the competition should report to the executive officer of the English Department not later than five weeks before the contest.

The Davis prizes were founded by Hon. Isaac Davis, of Massachusetts, in 1847, and they are awarded annually to such members of the Senior Class as shall have made the greatest progress in elocution since their connection with the University.

This is one of the most important public speaking contests under the auspices of the University. It is looked forward to by the forensically inclined members of the graduating class.

The winner of the contest has the right to claim as a veteran public speaker, since the competition is one for matured speakers, students who have had experience in the art of elocution.

ENGLISH VOTED MOST VALUABLE AT YALE U.

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (IP).—English is the most valuable college subject, and psychology is the least valuable, according to the majority vote of Yale seniors, announced in the Yale Daily News recently.

The seniors, in a questionnaire, voted a Phi Beta Kappa key motto to be desired than a major "Y," and announced Lindbergh as their most admired man.

Bureau of Mines, will give an illustrated lecture on slate March 28, at 7:30 p. m., in Building 4, Room 34, under the auspices of Sigma Gamma Epsilon, the geologic fraternity. The pictures will illustrate the new method of cutting massive slate from the earth by means of a slender steel wire. The wire saw was introduced under the direction of Dr. Bowles only two years ago, and at that time tremendous economies have been effected in the slate quarries, which have installed the new equipment. Mechanical engineers will be interested in descriptions of a core drill which cuts a hole 36 inches in diameter, and 10 feet or more in depth.

GET-TOGETHER TEA HELD BY ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club held a general get-together tea yesterday in the Women's Building from four to six. Several invited guests from the outside and most of the twenty-five members of the club were present. The members are mostly girls majoring in Home "Economics" and a few women not specializing in that field but particularly interested in that line. Mildred Hart, the president of the club, made the arrangements for the tea.

COLONIAL WOMEN BEAT IN DEBATE TEMPLE VARSITY

G. W. Debaters Defeat Invaders Again in Contest on Jury System

MEN HAVE NO-DECISION CONTEST WITH LOYOLA

Butler University, of Indiana, to Invade G. W. Men on Friday, March 29

True to form, the George Washington varsity women debaters defeated by the judges' vote of two to one, their last invaders, the Temple University debating team on Tuesday evening, March 19.

The winning team was composed of Ruth Kernan, Virginia Frye and Louise Feinstein. The invaders were Virginia Leader, Marceline McElwee and Virginia Hearne.

The subject of the debate was: "Resolved, That the jury system be abolished." The Colonials maintained their old side, the affirmative.

Ability Demonstrated. Both sides showed extraordinary ability and convincing arguments. Ruth Kernan was eloquent; Virginia Leader, straight-forward in her arguments; Virginia Frye, witty; Marceline McElwee, convincing; Louise Feinstein, logical; and Virginia Hearne, passionate.

In the men's debate, the Colonials argued against Loyola University, on March 18. The forensic exhibition was a no-decision contest.

Urchins Hear Debate

The most interesting feature of the debate was the audience to whom the well-prepared speakers were attempting to convince on the merits or demerits of the jury system. It was composed of several street urchins brought in by Paul Keough, one of the members of the varsity debating team, in order to save the debaters from speaking to themselves alone.

Karl Frisbie and Andrew Howard upheld the affirmative for G. W., while Richard Ford and John Keating represented Loyola.

Dr. Warren Reed West, of the political science department, presided as chairman. Pauline Smith acted as timekeeper.

Loyola Wants Modification

Andrew Howard opened the argument for George Washington. He stressed the delay and expense that the jury system incurs.

The Loyola men pleaded for modification of the jury system instead of complete abolishment. They advocated an amending of the system by a gradual process.

Karl Frisbie brought out the inefficiency of the jury system. He effectively showed the advantages derived from having judges instead of juries decide the guilt or innocence of an accused person.

Butler to Invade G. W.

Butler University of Indianapolis, will be met next Friday evening, March 29, in Stockton Hall. The Jury System will be the subject of the debate, with George Washington debaters arguing in favor of it. Karl Frisbie, Andrew Howard, and Hearst R. Duncan will represent G. W. As this debate will close the season, a capacity crowd is expected.

MASONIC CLUB PLANS ANNUAL BRIDGE PARTY

Pilgrimage to George Washington Lodge at Fredericksburg to be Arranged

The George Washington University Masonic Club held its March meeting last Monday at the home of M. Ralph Morgani.

Plans were discussed for the annual bridge party which has been tentatively set for Monday, April 8, at Colonial Hotel, Fifteenth and M Streets. The bridge party committee, consisting of Ivan Booher, chairman, Kenneth H. Bruner, Emory Chappier, and Delbert J. Harrell, is enthusiastically making arrangements for the party.

Last year the bridge party was held in the auditorium of the Chestnut Farms, Dair. Some 75 couples were present. The party was very successful and there is every indication that this year's will be the same. The club is discussing plans for a visit to George Washington Lodge at Fredericksburg, Va. Last year this lodge invited the Masonic Club to visit it, but the invitation had to be declined inasmuch as it was too near examination period. It is hoped that the trip may be made this year shortly after Easter.

A new departure in the meeting, and an enjoyable one, was the serving of refreshments at the close.

DOES IT PAY TO STUDY?

Do high grades pay? This is the question which many undergraduate students of American universities are asking themselves, and because of complete indecision the individual student is somewhat apt to think of his college course as an era in itself, without influence on his life after graduation. If he does connect his college course with a business future at all, he is likely to think that his athletics or social activities, his work on college papers, or in dramatics, or similar extra-curricular efforts, are better training for the future than his academic work. Some do academic work merely in order that they can stay in college to do the other things. And in taking this attitude the students reflect fairly accurately the opinion of many of their elders, under whom they are going to begin their working career.

If a recent investigation by the Bell Telephone Company is to be taken as any indication of where the path of the college graduates lead, one of the most readily available objective measures of their past achievement is their college scholastic record. It measures the results in what, after all, has been their major task for four years. Its value for indicating future achievement is surely worth determining.

From the Bell System study of 3,806 college graduates now in business it appears that the man in the first third in scholarship at college, five years or more after graduation, has not merely one chance in three, but one in two of standing in the highest third in salary. On the other hand, the man in the lowest third in scholarship has, instead of one chance in three, only about one in five of standing in the highest third in salary. There is also nearly one chance in two that he will stand in the lowest third in salary.

True, salary in this case has been used as the measure of success. While success in life can not always be rated by income, we do believe that as between one man and another working in the same business organization, success and salary—while not the same thing—will, generally speaking, parallel each other.

If studies by others corroborate the results of this study in the Bell System and it becomes clear that the mind well trained in youth has the best chance to succeed in any business it may choose, then scholarship as a measure of mental equipment is of importance indeed. Business will have a surer guide to the selection of able young men than it has used in the past, and the young men who train the muscles of their brains can feel reasonably certain that such training will add to their success in business and, in all probability, to the fruitful and happy use of the leisure which success in business will give them.

THE approach of Easter again reminds us that the one advantage in going to school is that there are always holidays to look forward to. The thought also comes to mind that someone should organize an interfraternity or inter-sorority egg-rolling contest, and present a nice silver cup to the winner at the Panhellenic Prom to go with the ones for bridge and scholarship and what not. We hear that a movement has been organized under the auspices of the fraternity men to have the corsages sent for the Prom take the place of the ones for Easter. This, however, has met with such concentrated opposition from the coeds that we expect (or at least hope) to see the usual Easter bouquets just as much in evidence.

Chi Omega is leading League 1 in the Intersorority Bridge Tournament with four wins, and Pi Phi is leading League 2 with three wins and one loss.

Complete scores of the other sororities have not been turned in to the committee as yet.

A three-year silver loving cup is to be presented to the winner of the tournament at the Panhellenic Prom, Marjorie Bowman, Chairman of the Committee announces.

The final game of the tournament will be played between the winners of each league, at the time and place to be chosen by the respective winners.

Prof. Kayser Speaks Before History Club

"Lorenzo, The Magnificent," is the Subject of Talk at History Club

"Lorenzo, The Magnificent," was the subject of the talk by Professor Elmer Louis Kayser, before the History Club, on March 19th.

He sketched the life of the noted ruler of Florence, telling of the early training he received, his marriage, and how he came to rule Florence on the death of his father.

Professor Kayser also gave a description of the times, the beginnings of the Renaissance and especially the men who contributed to it. Lorenzo was a patron of art, and many of the famous artists of his period got their start because of the interest he displayed in their work.

The returns from the card party held recently are still coming in, but the returns have been so large that it is safe to say that this was the biggest success, financially, that the club has ever attempted.

SPHINX HONOR SOCIETY ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

Eugenie Le Merle Chosen President, Virginia Shull, Secretary-Treasurer; Pledges Initiated March 4

Eugenie Le Merle was elected president of the Sphinx Honor Society at a meeting held Sunday, March 4, at the home of Louise DuBose, former president, and Virginia Shull was chosen secretary-treasurer.

Initiation was held for Elizabeth Buntin, Elizabeth Ford, and Virginia Shull, who were pledged last week.

Eugenie Le Merle, the new president, was elected to the Sphinx Honor Society last year. She is a student in the Architectural School and a member of Alpha Delta Pi.

The representative to the Women's Advisory Council will be elected later.

Sphinx is a society founded to promote and recognize high scholarship among the women of the University, and a high scholastic average is the chief requirement for election. At a meeting of the society held several weeks ago the undergraduate members unanimously voted to raise the required scholastic average and to consider for membership women who have not participated to the greatest possible extent in college activities if these students seem to possess the qualities of character and leadership which Sphinx tries to achieve.

Philippine Club To Hold April Dance

Organization's Annual-Affair Scheduled for Next Month; Committee Appointed

The Philippine Club of George Washington, at its last meeting, decided to hold its annual dance in April.

The committee in charge of the dance, appointed by President James G. Wingo, is composed of John G. Barbers, Joe Fuente and Antonio Somera.

At the meeting held before the last one new officers of the society were elected. The other officers elected, besides Wingo, were John G. Barbers, vice president; Pastor Vales-tre, secretary; and P. Estrella, treasurer.

Prof. Lloyd Gives Talk To Mathematics Club

Prof. Lloyd of U. of Maryland and Resess Math Club on March 18

Prof. D. B. Lloyd, of the University of Maryland, addressed the Mathematics Club on March 18. His topic was "The Three Problems of Antiquity" which referred to the classic problems of the quadrature of the circle, the trisection of the angle and the duplication of the cube.

Prof. Lloyd gave the history of each problem, the various attempts at solutions, the "groping" methods which could not be accepted because they employed means which were forbidden to the Euclidean geometers. The demonstrations for the impossibility of solutions were given for the trisection and duplication, while the proof for the impossibility of Euclidean quadrature was indicated. The latter was first demonstrated by Lindemann as late as 1882.

Prof. Lloyd showed that the only possible Euclidean constructions were those which required only the rational operations and a finite number of extractions of square roots.

Larus & Brother Company Richmond, Va.

Dear Sirs:

Having just returned from my fishing camp in northern Ontario, and in the reflections upon a fortnight of most excellent weather, wonderful fishing and complete camp comfort, I feel that an appreciation of Edgeworth is due, as one of the principal factors of our enjoyment.

In past years, I have taken along a supply of various well-known brands of smoking tobacco, never having become fully acquainted with the difference in the smoking qualities of the so-called high-grade tobaccos now upon the market, and acting upon a tip from an old smoker friend, and as a matter of convenience in packing, this year I took along a dozen tins of Edgeworth Plug Slice.

There are no places nor conditions in existence where the contentment, drawn from a briar pipe meets with keener enjoyment or more critical analysis than beside the camp-fire after a strenuous day in the great outdoors.

It is the unanimous opinion of the smokers among my party that Edgeworth is without a peer, and that its smoothness, fragrance and fine smoking qualities are unsurpassed and unmatched; and I thank you for making it possible to obtain it.

Yours truly,
(Signed) H. N. Curtis

TEAMS CLASH IN CLASS TOURNEY

Freshmen and Sophomores End Games with a Tied Score 22 to 22

REFEREED BY MISS DAVIS

Junior-Senior Combination Defeats Freshman Team By a Score of 32-21

In the first two games of the women's interclass basketball series, the freshman sextet held the sophomores to a tie at 22-22, on Tuesday, March 19, and lost to the junior-senior combination on Friday, March 22, by a score of 32-21.

The first game of the tournament between the freshmen and sophomores was marked by fast playing on both sides. Berryman started in the forward territory for the sophs with the able help of Benenson, but the sophomore guards also found difficulty in stopping Lum, freshman forward, who caged 16 out of the 22 baskets for her team.

Tied in Last Quarter

The score at the half was 12-8 in favor of the freshman team. At the opening of the second half, Barryman dropped in several shots, and in the last quarter the sophs surged ahead to tie the score.

Palmer and Sproul in center field for the older team found keen competition in the Breckinridge-Reed combination for the freshmen.

The lineup:

Berryman, F. Lum, Benenson, F. Aal, Palmer, C. Breckinridge, Sproul, S. C. Reed, Folsom, G. Ewin, Brookhart, G. Jacobs.

Goals: Berryman, 7 twos; Benenson, 4 twos; Lum, 8 twos; Aal, 3 twos.

Referee: Miss Eugenia Davis. Scorekeeper, Althea Lawton.

Second Game

Winning by a score of 32-21, the junior-senior combination was able to down the freshman sextet in a hard-fought basketball contest on Friday, March 22.

Playing for the upperclassmen, Crumley, varsity captain, scored 27 of their points during the game.

Denning and Turnbull in the center turned their fine passwork to good account in spite of the excellent competition offered by Breckinridge and Reed on the opposing team.

Seizing the lead at the beginning of the game, the freshmen were soon forced to relinquish the advantage to the upperclassmen when by the fine shooting of Crumley, together with the excellent support of her teammates, they forged ahead to a score of 14-6 at the close of the first half.

At the opening of the second half, Lum starred by dropping several difficult shots into the basket, menacing the lead of the juniors and seniors.

The lineup:

Junior-Senior (32) Freshman (21)
Crumley, F. Lum, Ruth, F. Aal, Denning, C. Breckinridge, Turnbull, S. C. Reed, Zimmerman, G. Ewin, Sime, G. Williams.

Goals: Crumley, 13 twos, 1 one; Lum, 6 twos, 1 one; Aal, 3 twos, 2 ones; Ruth, 2 twos, 1 one.

Substitutions: Irey for Crumley, Crumley for Irey, Chindblum for Ruth, Irey for Chindblum, Turnbull for Denning, Chindblum for Turnbull.

Referee: Miss Eugenia Davis. Scorekeeper, Sproul.

PHARMACY NINE HAS PROSPECTS FOR GOOD TEAM

The Pharmacy Upperclass men, who have up to date vanquished every freshman basketball team are practicing for this year's tilt.

This game is an annual affair between the two classes and it appears as if the upperclass men will again repeat, as all of their last year regulars are still in school this year.

The regulars who still remain are: G. Maloran, pitcher; J. Snelkowski, catcher; Ben Bass, second base; V. Norrell, short stop; B. Sasher, third base; H. Brill, first base; J. Clements, left field; H. Rosen, center field; and M. Smallwood, right field.

The Pharmacists are now booking games with the other Departments of the University, such as the Engineers, Pre-Meds, or any fraternity desiring games. For games, get in touch with Benjamin Bass of the School of Pharmacy.

Those men interested in varsity tennis are directed to give their name and place where they may be reached to either Professor Holt, coach, Captain Larry Phillips, or Manager Bill Shreve.

RIFLE SQUAD IS YET UNDEFEATED

Colonial Riflers Down Maryland in Final Match By Ten Points

AWARDS ARE ANNOUNCED

Bertie Wright Elected Varsity Captain; Arline Spencer Named Manager

Crashing through their last match of the season with a triumphant 496, the Colonial Women Riflers defeated the Maryland team by 10 points in a shoulder-to-shoulder match at the G. W. range on Saturday, March 23.

The G. W. co-eds who have not lost a match this year, showed exceptional skill in winning the most important and exciting match of the season. Maryland scored 486, a low total in comparison to the high standard set by the Colonials. Both teams look forward to this match as a test of their ability and for six years it has been the climax of the rifle season.

Margaret Mitchell of Maryland, who won the 1929 Intercollegiate Individual Championship, dropped to a 95, which was 3 points below Helen Taylor, whom she defeated in a tie for the honor.

After the match, according to an established custom, the girls who won their major letters this season cast their votes to elect the captain for next year, Roberta Wright. Bertie shot on the Central High School team for three years and was captain in '26-'27. She has been on varsity rifle at G. W. for two years.

Maryland Entertained

After the match, the Buff and Blue team entertained the Maryland girls with a dinner at Tally-Ho Tavern. Besides the members of both teams, Miss Evelyn Jones, Miss Eugenia Davis, and several assistant managers were present.

During the dinner it was announced that Arline Spencer had been selected by Mr. Stokes as Manager of rifle for next year, pending the approval of the Athletic Board. Arline also shot at Central and has been a member of the G. W. team for two years.

The following girls will receive major letters for participation in the most important matches of the season: Betty Clark, India Belle Corea, Naomi Crumley, Gene Cuvillier, Helen Humphrey, Marjorie Leighey, Verna Parsons, Helen Prentiss, Helen Taylor, Roberta Wright.

The following will be awarded minor letters: Arline Spencer, Katherine Junkin, Emily Mitchell, Virginia Whitney.

Interclass matches are being shot off this week.

The Dot and Circle targets will be finished this week also. The Colonials have won this match two years in succession, and a victory this year will mean the permanent possession of the trophy.

FRESHMEN MEN'S TEAMS SEEM EVENLY MATCHED

Results of Series of Basketball Games Will Be Announced Later

A series of basketball games to decide the basketball championship of the Freshman Gymnasium classes have been started. Members of the regular Freshman Basketball team are acting as coaches to the teams, which, from all appearances, are evenly matched.

Practically the entire Freshman Class turned out to see the first of the battles last Monday at noon between the 4.00 o'clock class team and the 11.00 o'clock team. On Tuesday, the 9.00 o'clock team played the loser of the first match. The final game takes place today in the Gymnasium at 12 o'clock.

Robert Boyle is acting as manager of the games and Harry Stark is serving as referee.

Line-ups and results of the games will be announced in the next edition of the Hatchet.

T. U. O. CAPTURES BOWLING TROPHY

Interfraternity Championship Decided in Match at Convention Hall

S. A. E. FINISHES SECOND

Pomeroy High Scorer With 332 Pins; Second Game Won by Single Pin

One pin was the narrow margin that carried Theta Upsilon Omega over the top to the interfraternity bowling championship, and sent the Sigma Alpha Epsilon bowlers and fans home after the match last Wednesday night in Convention Hall.

After taking the first game easily, S. A. E. faltered just enough in the second of the three-game match to drop it by one pin. That was enough to decide the championship as the T. U. O.'s kept it up to take the third game and title by eight pins.

Scidom has a final game or match in any interfraternity sport furnished the up and down thrills of that final bowling match. The first game was not much. After getting away to a bad start, the Sig Alphas bore down and piled up pin after pin for a total of 512 to the 496 of the victors.

The second game was the thriller. Always close and with members of both teams bowling as they have not bowled all season, it drew cheer after cheer from over the hundred fans that had gathered to watch. No one knew who had won until the scores were added and when they were, it was T. U. O., 524, and S. A. E., 523.

The winners took the lead in the third game and maintained it throughout. With a miracle needed by the Sig Alphas to win as Babe Whyte, the last man, came up for the last time, Whyte made a brave try, getting two spares in his two frames. To win the match he needed a strike on his next and last ball, but the strain had been too heavy. The T. U. O.'s took it 505 to 497.

Pomeroy, T. U. O., took high scoring honors for the match with a total of 332 pins for the three games, while George Muth, S. A. E., captured individual laurels for one game, 125.

The individual totals were:

Downer	91	104

Pomeroy	109	118

SPRING FOOTBALL

All men interested in spring football, report to Coach Crum at 2 o'clock today in the Gym. Baseball candidates are requested to report at the same time.

FOOTBALL BEGINS AFTER HOLIDAYS

Spring Training To Be Combined With Baseball, Says Coach Crum

FEW BASEBALL GAMES

Only Local Colleges And Sandlotters To Be Met On Diamond

According to an announcement made last night, Coach "Maud" Crum expects to call out his candidates for spring football training immediately after the Easter holidays. The Colonial mentor has called a meeting for all interested this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Gym, at which time he will impart to the men just what they are to do.

Coach Crum has decided at the same time to combine his baseball and football practice sessions, so that three days a week will be given over to football, and the other two days devoted to the diamond sport. If past experience means anything, the same men will probably be candidates for both sports, according to Crum, and he sees no reason why the two should not be indulged in at the same time.

Little Money for Baseball

With the school appropriating little or no money for baseball, the Buff and Blue coach has been forced to limit his schedule and plans very closely. However, he will probably arrange games with all of the local colleges, as well as some of the stronger sandlot teams.

As for football, Crum expects to run the sessions on practically the same plans as last year. Three of four of the old players will assist him in this early development of prospects for next year's eleven. Although no rough work will be permitted, the men will be drilled thoroughly in the fundamentals of the game and various plays expected to be used this season will be illustrated.

Six Places Vacant on Eleven

In view of the exceptionally poor season of 1928, Crum is hoping for

MEN'S DANCING CHORUS TRIALS TO BE FRIDAY

Men's Chorus To Be Feature of Musical Comedy; Tryouts in C. H. 1, March 29

DENNIS CONNELL, COACH, PICKS TENTATIVE CAST

Donna Smith and Betty Waller are Named as Dancing Assistants

Tryouts for a men's dancing chorus for the annual Troubadour musical comedy will be held in Corcoran Hall 1, Friday, March 29, at 7:30. This will be one of the features of the show if it turns out as well as it promises.

Dennis Connell, dramatic coach, has picked a cast which is being tried out under his direction this week. The selections are only tentative as yet and may be replaced at a later date.

Tentative Cast

The present cast includes Harriette Rissler, Geraldine Free, Mildred Burnham, Ruth Greenwood, Virginia Frye, John P. Silas, Jr., Jerry Slicker, Frank Westbrook, John M. Hoyt, Solomon Schnapp, Bennie Newton and King Prender.

Pern Henninger, stage director, has completed drawings for the two sets required for "Sometime Soon." The first set takes place in a Hollywood movie studio during the filming of a musical version of "The Three Musketeers." The second set has a country estate as its setting. The society dowager owning the estate is giving a party for the visiting Grand Duke, thus allowing a wonderful opportunity for scenic and costume effects.

The girls' chorus has been training steadily for the past two weeks. There will be three groups, tall, middle, and small. There are more chorus numbers than usual, and the steps are more difficult than they have been in the past, which will undoubtedly make the show more entertaining. Donna Smith and Betty Waller are assisting Julia Denning with the chorus.

MEN'S GYM CLASS TO USE Y. M. C. A. SWIMMING POOL

Arrangements have been made whereby the Men's Gym Classes, under the direction of Mr. William Dove Thompson, beginning immediately after the Easter vacation, are to substitute swimming for calisthenics.

Experience in past years has shown that it is impossible because of the heat to continue training in the gym when it gets warm. Mr. Thompson has secured the use of the Y. M. C. A. pool. He will give instruction in swimming and diving to those who wish to learn, and instruction for those wishing to pass the Red Cross Junior and Senior Life Saver's Tests.

All Engineers Are Asked To Attend First Annual Banquet, April Thirteen

Plans are well under way for the first "Annual Engineers' Banquet" to be held Saturday evening, April 13, at 7 o'clock, in the Chinese Room of the Mayflower. All engineers are urged to support this event which is sponsored by representatives from the several classes, the engineering fraternities and societies, and the entire engineering faculty.

This social function is more than a banquet; it is the first step toward the unification of the entire student body of the School of Engineering and will serve to bind all students more closely to the profession. Although the speakers of the evening have not yet been announced, they will be nationally known engineers and it will be well worth your while to hear them. Furthermore, at this time several interesting awards and presentations will be made.

Xi Chapter of Sigma Tau honorary engineering fraternity will make its annual award to the freshman who has maintained the highest scholastic standing this year. His name is at present withheld, but will be announced later.

A sum of money to be applied to the "Engineers' Clubroom Fund" will be formally presented by the student chapter of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers. This fund is to be used in furnishing a room which will be used as a meeting place exclusively for engineers.

The committee regrets to state that the sale of tickets has not been as rapid as first expected. We realize that everyone has financial obligations, but please consider carefully the value of this investment to yourself, your school, and your profession.

Interesting Program and Entertainment is Outlined For Three Days of Convention

Henry Gratton Doyle, Dean of Men, will make public the results of his nation-wide questionnaire on the characteristics of the present day college student when he addresses the Twelfth Annual Convention of the National Association of Deans and Advisers of Men to be held in Washington, April 11, 12, and 13, with headquarters at the Mayflower.

The highlight of the convention will be an address by Ray Lyman Wilbur, Secretary of the Interior, who will speak on "Shifting Standards of Student Conduct." Dean Thomas Arkie Clark, Dean of Men, University of Illinois, has chosen for his subject, "Hell Week."

Y. W. C. A. WILL SEND BASKETS TO ORPHANS

Proceeds From Benefit Bridge Party Given to Graduate Endowment Fund

Following their usual custom, the Y. W. C. A. will send Easter baskets to about forty children at Hillcrest Orphanage. They are asking for contributions of hard boiled dyed eggs, to be left at the Y. W. C. A. clubrooms not later than Wednesday, March 27. Members of the Social Service Committee will then pack them attractively in baskets, to be taken to the children.

Hillcrest has received most of the attention of the Social Service Branch this year, for stockings were sent to them last Christmas, and they were surprised by Valentines also.

At the benefit bridge given Wednesday, March 20, the Y. W. C. A. cleared twenty dollars, according to Elizabeth Buntin, who was in charge. The proceeds are to go toward the Graduate Endowment Fund. The Y. W. C. A. has also raised two hundred dollars for the fund from senior Y members.

Columbian Women To Hold Annual Banquet

Madame Debuchi, Wife of Japanese Ambassador, Will Be Guest of Honor

A brilliant program has been arranged for the twenty-first annual banquet of the Columbian Women of the George Washington University, to be held Thursday evening, April 11, at the Chevy Chase Club.

One of the most interesting events on the program will be an illustrated talk on Japan, to be given by Mrs. Gilbert Grosvenor.

Madame Debuchi, wife of the present Japanese Ambassador to the United States, is to be a guest of honor at the banquet. Cherry blossoms, which will be the motif of the decorations, will have a twofold significance upon this occasion, being symbolic of the country of this guest of honor, and also of the George Washington University.

Mrs. Harvey W. Wiley, President of the Columbian Women, who will preside at the banquet, has announced the following chairman: Place and Menu, Mrs. Joshua Evans, Jr.; decorations, Miss Harriet E. Garrels; seating, Mrs. Elmer Louis Kayser; printing, Mrs. Frank R. Rutter; usher, Miss Maxine Girts; accompanist, Mrs. Charles S. Collier.

Cues, Curtain Calls and Clinches

By STAGE DOOR JOHNNY

COLUMBIA

Loew's Columbia is holding "The Bellamy Trial" over this week, due to popular demand.

The story revolves around the murder of Mimi Bellamy. The picture unrolls four reels of evidence presented in sensational dialogue by a cast which includes Leatrice Joy, Betty Bronson, Edward Nugent and a newcomer to the screen, Charles B. Middleton. The pair on trial, Sue Ives and Stephen Bellamy, are threatened with the most damaging evidence against them, but are acquitted when an unexpected witness brings in a startling confession.

EARLE

The Douglas MacLean-Paramount talking picture, "The Carnation Kid," is the major screen offering of an entertaining program presented this week at the Earle Theater.

The story is from an original written for MacLean by Alfred A. Cohen, who has written several screen successes, and it is said, he has injected plenty of action and pep into the script.

MacLean portrays the role of an innocent and quite harmless type-writer salesman who is inadvertently thrust in the midst of a gangster's feud and political war. He finds himself the leading figure of the controversy by virtue of mistaken identity, all of which contributes to mirthful and, at times, thrilling dramatic screen fare. The supporting cast includes Frances Lee, Lorraine Eddy, William B. Davidson, Francis McDonald, Charles Males and others.

FOX

George Ade's story, "Making the Grade," as pictured by William Fox, will give Edmund Lowe, who was seen and heard in "In Old Arizona," a humorous role, at the Fox Theater this week. In support of Mr. Lowe is Lois Moran, a star in her own right, and Lucien Littlefield.

The story concerns a young man with lots of money and more than his share of conceit. He meets a girl, however, who bullies, cajols, kids and loves him into becoming regular in every sense in the world. Actually makes a hero out of him.

An added screen attraction will be a Fox Movietone presentation of Chic Sale in "A Lady's Man." Mr. Sale's portrayal of rural types has brought him fame.

The stage program is given over to Bert Frohman's jubilee, with this merry master of ceremonies who is to remain at the Fox indefinitely, introducing many Broadway musical comedy and revue stars.

LITTLE THEATER

"Homecoming," the latest picture to come from the studio of UFA, will be presented for the first time to Washington audiences this week at the Little Theater.

The story was filmed from the novel "Karl and Anna," by Leonhard Franck, heralded as one of the finest of the post-war novels. There are only three persons in the entire story—Lars Hansen, Karl Frohlich and Dita Parlo, who plays the only female.

NEWMAN CLUB TO GIVE CARD PARTY ON APR. 11

Plans Also Being Made For The Club Prom To Be Held In May

At the meeting of the Newman Club in Corcoran Hall on Thursday, March 21, President Nags Knapp appointed a committee to arrange for the card party to be given by the club at the Burlington Hotel, on April 11. The committee is composed of the following: Mary Flaherty, Mary Miller, Wilbur McAllan, Donald Galligan and Mary Connolly.

Arrangements for the Newman Prom, which will be held at a nearby country club in the first week of May, are being made by the following committee: Melita Chavez, J. Tiffany Moriarty, Cornelia Nugent, Evelyn McCarthy, Mary Dormer, Jose Espinosa and James Hoffman.

Pixlee New Director of Athletics

WESTMINSTER COLLEGE'S COACH WILL ASSUME NEW POST AT G. W. NEXT FALL

Professor of Physical Education for Men and Director of Athletics is Official Designation of James E. "Jimmie" Pixlee Who Comes to University with Brilliant Record

PIXLEE DIRECTED PHYSICAL AND BAYONET TRAINING IN CANTONMENTS DURING WORLD WAR

Director's Teams at Westminster Successful; in last Two Years, Football Eleven Wins 13 of 17 Games, Tying Two and Losing Two; Basketball Quint Wins 25 of 32 Games

James E. "Jimmie" Pixlee, present head of the Athletic Department of Westminster College, at Fulton, Missouri, has been named Professor of Physical Education and Director of Athletics for The George Washington University, and will assume his duties next fall, according to an announcement made today by the administration.

It is understood that Coach Pixlee will again direct the football team next year.

Pixlee leaves Westminster with a brilliant record behind him, and comes to the University highly recommended by leading athletic authorities in the country. At George Washington, Pixlee will have general supervision of the physical education program for which he has been specially trained, and will also have general charge of athletics, with coaches for the several sports working under his direction.

At Westminster, Pixlee worked under an athletic program which included as many men as possible in all branches of competition and carried on regular organized classroom work in all branches of sport, emphasizing the fact that eighty per cent of success in athletics is mental.

As a student the new Director of Athletics attended the University of Missouri, where he was placed on the "All Missouri Valley" team at end in 1909, at fullback in 1911, and at end in 1912. He played in both the backfield and line in football, and traifed under such men as Roper, Hollenbeck and Brewer in that sport. In track he came under the influence of T. E. Jones of Wisconsin, and in basketball he was advised by Lowman of Wisconsin.

After leaving Missouri Pixlee had some professional baseball experience, and then was connected with the Multinomial Athletic Club of Portland, Oregon, as coach and player, where he had a football team that was champion of the Pacific coast. From 1914 to 1917, he was director of athletics and coach at Missouri Wesleyan College, where he developed a championship team in 1914, tied in 1915, and was second in 1916. It was here that he acquired the nickname of "Possum."

Pixlee then entered the U. S. Army, where he continued his success. He was division coach and director of the 36th and 17th divisions; was in charge of the schools of physical education and athletics at Camp Bowie, Texas, and had charge of the baseball camp at Fort Riley, Kansas, and convalescent work at Fort Riley, Kansas.

In this connection, thousands of men came under his observation and attention. His 36th division football team was champion in the southwest division in the fall of 1917; in the A. E. F. finals in 1918, Pixlee's 36th division team lost only to the 89th division in the final game at Paris.

Returning from his war work, Pixlee took up his work as coach and director of athletics at the Oklahoma A. and M. College. Here he remained for two years, tying for the state championship in football in 1919, and winning the state championship in baseball in 1919 and 1920. He then went into private business until 1922, when he began his career at Westminster College.

To 1926, Pixlee had piloted sixteen championship teams in the four major sports during his career. A statistical review give the Pixlee teams a large preponderance in the total scores over his opponents. His football teams have won 66 games, tied 6, and lost 25, for a total score of 1,282 to 546. In seven years of basketball his teams had won 65 and lost 19 games for a total score of 2,568 to 1,771. In eight seasons of baseball his teams had played 99 games and won 86 of them. All told, his teams had played 280 games of football, basketball, and baseball, had won 219, had lost 55, and had tied 6.

During the past two seasons Westminster played 17 football games, winning 13, tying two, and losing two. In basketball Westminster won 25 of 32 games played.

In the three years from 1925 to Coach Pixlee wearing his Missouri "M" awarded for play at end and fullback.

1927, inclusive, Westminster teams won nine championships out of a possible twelve in the State of Missouri, and won 89 out of 89 games with conference teams.

Of Pixlee, John L. Griffith, Commissioner of Athletics for the Intercollegiate Conference (Big Ten), says, "Pixlee was not only one of the best athletes in the Missouri Valley Conference, but one of the outstanding sportsmen who was respected by all of his rivals. I had the pleasure of serving with Pixlee in different capacities during the World War, and am cognizant of his fine service record. Our work was in connection with physical and bayonet training under the direction of the General Staff, and we were in a sense pioneers in promoting this form of work in the cantonments in this country. In this service Pixlee's ability as an executive and leader stood out."

EDITORIAL, NEWS CONTEST TO BE HELD BY P. D. E.

Beckel, Cooper, Kent, Lawrence,
And Oulahan To Act
As Judges

WINNERS OF LAST YEAR'S CONTEST ARE ANNOUNCED

Sherman Johnson, George Washington
Student, Awarded Fourth
Prize; John MacLachlan Third

Following its policy of encouraging collegiate journalism, Pi Delta Epsilon, national men's honorary journalistic fraternity, will offer five prizes for a total of one hundred and thirty-five dollars for the best news story written and published in any college newspaper during the present academic year.

Dean Henry Gratian Doyle, Grand Vice President of Pi Delta Epsilon, announced today that the following judges had consented to pass upon the merits of the numerous pieces of reportorial work which it is expected will be submitted as a result of the new competition: Karl Beckel, President, United Press; Kent Cooper, General Manager, Associated Press; Russell Kent, President, National Press Club; David Lawrence, President of United Press; and Richard V. Oulahan, Washington Correspondent to the New York Times.

News story competition has been added to the list of the activities of Pi Delta Epsilon with the hope of encouraging better quality in collegiate newspaper work. This step was taken after the results of the editorial contest had made themselves felt in the editorial columns of dozens of college newspapers throughout the country.

Editorial Prizes

Winners of the ten prizes offered by Pi Delta Epsilon for the best editorials published in any college newspaper during the academic year, 1927-1928, were announced by Dean Doyle, who was in charge of the contest. Successful was the renewal of the editorial contest that the organization voted to sponsor another editorial contest this year. In addition to that, at the suggestion of the judges, it was voted to conduct a contest for the best examples of reportorial work produced in the college newspapers during the same period.

Those who served as judges of the editorial contest were: Major Oliver P. Newman, Thomas R. Shipp, Inc., former commissioner of the District of Columbia; Ira E. Bennett, editor, The Washington Post; Louis Ludlow, Washington correspondent, former President, National Press Club, and Congressman from Indiana; Frederic William Wile, The Frederic William Wile Service; and Claude G. Bowers, Editor of The World, New York City.

Full announcement of regulations governing both the editorial and news contests will be made soon. Both contests are open to all colleges in the United States, and to men and women contestants alike. According to Dean Doyle all material to be considered for the ten prizes offered must be submitted to the directors of the contest before July 1, 1929.

Prize Winners

The members and officials of Pi Delta Epsilon feel fortunate in securing the services of such eminent newspaper men as those who have promised their services in judging the contests and they feel that their superior knowledge will result in a high standard of competition.

Under the plan announced, prizes were awarded in two groups, one open to all journals and staffs, the other restricted to members of the fraternity. The prize awards were as follows:

Group A (general), first prize, Charles Engvall, 2322 Girard Avenue, Minneapolis, Minn., for the editorial entitled "All Aboard for Gargantua"; second prize, David Silverman, 9011 St. Clair Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio; for "One Genius Versus a Hundred A. B.'s"; third prize, John MacLachlan, Millsaps College, Miss., for "Christmas Gift!"; fourth prize, Spencer Barnett, Lafayette, La., for "Armistice Day"; and fifth prize, John A. Holmes, Jr., 28 Bellingham Street, Somerville, Mass., for "Left Eye—Right Eye."

Group B (Pi Delta Epsilon), first prize, Louis H. Bell, Jr., State College, Pa., for "The Unfortunate Rhodes Scholar"; third prize, Scott G. Nelson, 445 East Fourth Street, North Logan, Utah, for "Our Local Tammany Hall"; fourth prize, Sherman E. Johnson, 1610 20th Street N. W., Washington, D. C., for "The Girls Left Out"; and fifth prize, F. H. Finn, 5549 Forbes Street, Pittsburgh, Pa., for "The 'Squeak' Case."

Johnson Wins

George Washington University students will be specially interested in the fact that under Group "B," Sherman Johnson was awarded fourth prize for his editorial "The Girls Left Out," which appeared in The Hatchet last year, and that under Group "A," John MacLachlan was awarded third prize for his editorial "Christmas Gift!" which appeared in the Purple and White, Millsaps College publication.

Sherman Johnson was for a number of years closely connected with George Washington University campus publications, having served as a reporter on The Hatchet for two years and a third as member of the Board of Editors. He was also active as a member of the last year's Ghost staff. John MacLachlan, Jackson, Miss., who is now a student at Millsaps College, is well known to many George

SPECIAL EXAMS WILL BE OFFERED NEXT YEAR

Required Courses May Be Eliminated
By Taking Examinations in Subjects Covered

Required subjects may be covered by examination by students who are proficient in the subjects, without taking the courses or attending classes, under the liberalized policy of Columbian College for next year, according to Acting Dean Charles E. Hill.

In such cases, Dean Hill explained, the student will not receive academic credit for the subjects so passed, but he will be allowed to take more advanced courses for which the required subjects were prerequisites. This will be an advantage in that students may progress further in their subjects, and many hours in classrooms will be saved.

This new policy is expected to be of great aid to freshmen who may thus attain advanced standing. Another advantage is that the number of students in required freshman subjects will be decreased.

Examinations must be requested of the Dean of Columbian College, but the actual examinations will be prepared by the departments under which the subjects fall. The papers, too, will be read and graded by the department immediately concerned. The examinations next fall will come in September after the close of regular registration, but before the late registration fee is charged.

The new system has been put in practice at the College in Columbia University and also in Swarthmore College. At Columbia, fully 40 per cent of the freshmen availed themselves of the opportunity of taking the examinations, and a good percentage of them passed, thus saving many hours of classroom time and allowing the students to take many advanced subjects.

Miss Mary C. Priest, Educator, Is Dead

Rites for First President of Columbian Women of G. W. U. Held Saturday

The first president of the Columbian Women of George Washington University, Miss Mary Charlotte Priest, assistant dean of the National Park Seminary, Forest Glen, Maryland, with which she had been connected for the past 35 years, died in Garfield Hospital February 27, after a short illness.

Funeral services were conducted in All Souls' Unitarian Church, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Dr. U. G. B. Pierce, pastor, officiated. Interment was in Rock Creek Cemetery.

Miss Priest had served at the seminary as instructor, assistant dean and sorority adviser. She left her work there in January, due to illness. She was a native of Lowell, Massachusetts. She was graduated from the Columbia University, New York, and from the old Columbian College, now George Washington University.

Schatz Plans Sale of Articles Accumulated During School Year

A rummage sale of some 500 articles found about the buildings and grounds of the University is being planned by Elmer Schatz, Superintendent of Maintenance.

For ladies there are over four dozen pairs of gloves to choose from, and about twice as many singles, 55 vari-colored scarfs, jewelry, rings, bracelets, goat pins and compacts.

The men will find a variety of fountain pens, single rubber shoes, rain coats, 15 felt hats, and umbrellas.

Another group includes a large number of pocket books and eye glasses. Books and note books comprise the largest lot.

Other items are "everything that a student carries around with him" according to Schatz, "and some that wouldn't look so good in print."

At least 3,000 articles are found and returned every year requiring almost a department in itself to take care of them. Not a day passes that something is not turned in by the janitors or maids.

The custom of saving found articles year after year has been abandoned. Lost items are sold and disposed of towards the end of every year. Those on hand will be disposed of shortly.

A number of articles found about the buildings belonging to the following named can be recovered at the offices of the Superintendent of Maintenance in Corcoran Hall basement.

Radio Transmission to Byrd at S. Pole To Be New G. W. U. Radio Club's Goal

Club Expects to Handle 1,000 Free Radiograms Monthly for Students
Over Amateur Radio Transmitting Station Now Being Installed;
McNeill, Chemistry Prof., Is Honorary President

"Hello, Byrd; how's the weather down there?"

These will be the words sent over the George Washington University Radio Club transmitting station now being built, according to the members of the club, whose slogan is "Byrd or Bust!" Nor is their enthusiasm dampened because of the prospect of a "cold answer," as one of them puts it.

"George Washington University has been needing a radio transmitter for a long time," said S. G. Hall, chairman of the club, "and we're going to install one for them. Messages will be accepted, free, to anywhere in the United States, Canada, Great Britain, Mexico, China, and Tasmania." The benefit to the student body from this radiogram service will be enormous, and so the club expects to operate the station about five hours each day.

"How many messages does the club expect to handle?" the proverbially inquisitive Hatchet reporter asked of one of the members.

"1,000 Per Month"

"About thirty-five a day, or a thousand a month," was the quick rejoinder. "There will be four licensed radio operators, all students of course, operating the station on regular schedules. There will be no reason why any student should fail to take advantage of the free service offered him by the club."

"Are there any definite hours of operation?"

"From 12 to 1 p. m. daily, after the station is built, and evening schedules will be arranged later. And by the way," said the member, who turned out to be the Chief Operator, A. W. Small, in charge of the construction, "the whole University, from President to Freshman, is invited to come around and get free code practice."

The Secretary, busily engaged in stringing up an aerial was next interviewed. "This is a Hertz antenna," he explained, smiling as though all were clear in everybody's mind. And then he went on to say that membership in the club is open to all students. "Technical radio talks will be arranged for all interested," he said.

McNeill President

Professor Hiram C. McNeill, the chemistry wizard, is the honorary president of the club, and is furnishing the room for the station in the rear of Room 39, Corcoran Hall. He favors the club greatly, and thinks it will be of great benefit to all. The whole club is quick to acknowledge his kindness, and it is rumored that he was going to let them have his office for the club room until the present location was decided.

Co-eds Invited

It seems that the Radio Club is willing to accept any student, whether girl or boy, as a member, and to teach him the art of radio transmission. Public speaking students will get much practice out of the voice transmission, it is thought, as microphone fright is often as great as stage fright.

The reporter did some more inquiring. "Yes," said one member, "Dean Rose is in favor of our club. Professor Ames is co-operating with Dean Lapham, of the Engineering School, is with us heart and soul, and Professor Johnson, of mechanical engineering fame, has done us many favors. The student body is also behind us, for the Chairman of the Board of Editors of The Hatchet helped us establish our club."

JAMES T. RUSSELL, JR., SPEAKS ON RESEARCH

"Two Summers of Prehistoric Research" Is Topic of Interesting Talk

James Townsend Russell, Jr., gave an illustrated talk Monday before the class in Archaeology on "Two Summers of Prehistoric Research in Central France." The results of the excavations which he conducted on two cities inhabited by prehistoric man were outlined.

Mr. Russell is a former student at George Washington. Dr. Mitchell Carroll directed his studies in Prehistory and he finished his course under Mrs. Carroll. Since 1925, he has been engaged in research work in Europe as a member of the American School of Prehistoric Research in Europe, under Dr. George MacCurdy and also accompanied Dr. MacCurdy to Palestine.

Mr. Russell has recently returned to Washington and has accepted the position of Assistant in Archaeology at the Smithsonian Institution.

Dean Rose Attends Conference of Deans

Deans of Women Gathering Held in Cleveland, Ohio, February 20 to 23

Dean Anna L. Rose returned recently to George Washington University after attending a conference of Deans of Women, held this year in Cleveland, Ohio. The conference was held from February 20 to 23. Miss Thyra Amos, Dean of Women at the University of Pittsburgh, was elected President of the Association at the conference. Miss Amos, who has visited George Washington University, is known to many co-eds.

The conference headquarters were not at any University this year, although the delegates, who stayed at the Statler Hotel, visited several of the schools in Cleveland. There were unusually good meetings and addresses at the conference this year, with much emphasis on the relationship between the older and younger generations.

PROFESSOR BAKER GIVES ADDRESS ON NEW POETRY

On March 15th, Professor Courtland Darke Baker of George Washington, spoke on poetry, at the meeting of the Writers' League at Thomson Center. Professor Baker, who acted as judge in the recent Poetry Contest, sponsored by the league, awarded the prizes. First prize went to Edith Mirick; honorable mention to Zella Wright Newcomb and Marguerite Wilcox.

Professor Baker's address mainly covered "The Dictation of Poetry." He stressed the importance of the proper language for different subdivisions of writing, and cautioned against the use of obsolete and archaic forms in modern poetry. He gave examples of lyric poetry from Verlaine, and some of the English poets.

The address of Professor Baker was enthusiastically received. The meeting drew an unusually large attendance of many well known writers. Dr. Mary Meek Atkeson, first vice president of the National League of American Pen Women, was an honor guest.

PHARMACY SCHOOL TO HAVE NEW QUARTERS

Remodelled Building to Have Modern and Scientific Labs and Apparatus

At the beginning of the next school year, the School of Pharmacy of the University will move to its new quarters. A building located in the Quadrangle on H Street has been assigned to this department. The structure will be thoroughly remodelled and the latest scientific apparatus will be available to the students.

This move was made necessary by the fact that the School is growing rapidly and the old quarters will not accommodate all the students who are expected when the fall term begins.

Plans for remodeling the building have already been drawn and work will begin shortly after the end of this term. The drawings call for a Pharmacy Laboratory, Chemical Laboratory, Pharmacology Laboratory, Pharmaceutical Library and modern class rooms. The apparatus will be of the latest type and will compare favorably with that of any Pharmacy College in the country.

Kansan Really Works Way Through College

Milks 12 Cows, Feeds Stock, Drives
Truck, Besides Attending Classes and Studying

TOPEKA, Kans. (IP).—Fred Clark, Meriden boy, really works his way through Washburn College.

Fred gets up at 4 o'clock every morning, milks 12 cows, feeds the hogs, cattle and horses, does chores, and at 6:30 changes from overalls into his school clothes.

He then drives a truck load of milk 18 miles to a creamery in North Topeka. Leaving the truck there, he takes a street car to Washburn College, where he arrives in time for an 8 o'clock class. At 12:30, when he is through college for the day, Clark returns to North Topeka, drives the truck to Meriden, dons his farm clothes and works in the field until 6 o'clock, then does chores until 9, studies until 10, and then hops into bed, ready to start at 4 the next morning.

G. W. Sorority Girls Serve As Models For Annual Spring Review

The George Washington co-ed has entered a new role. In response to a call from W. B. Moses and Son for bigger and better beauties, a score, more or less, of sorority girls from this University took part in the Annual Spring Fashion Parade.

The display ranged from bathing suits to evening dress, with all styles and types in between. While the feminine world of Washington looked on, trying to select its spring attire, the models glided by, smiling and prouetting in a thoroughly professional manner. Nor was this a success merely from the point of view of the spectators or of the models, who thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity to show themselves off at their best. The management seemed to be well pleased, and there is some talk of repeating the experiment.

In time this may become one of the "recognized professions" at George Washington University, to be listed on applications for student employment, and not merely tucked away in the miscellaneous items.

Will Conduct Classes in Summer Sessions

Two Visiting Professors, Thomas C. Lavery and Horace E. Whiteside Will Teach

Plans have been completed for the summer session of the George Washington University Law School. This will consist of two terms of six and one-half weeks each, the first beginning June 17 and closing July 31; the second beginning August 1 and closing September 14.

All of the members of the resident faculty will conduct courses in the summer session except two. Professor Charles S. Two Visiting Professors

There will be two visiting professors during the summer session. Professor Thomas C. Lavery, Rufus King, Professor of Constitutional Law at the University of Cincinnati Law School, will give the subject of Insurance during the first term, and Municipal Corporations during the second term.

Professor Lavery is a graduate of the George Washington University, with the A. B. and LL. B. degrees, and has been a post-graduate student at the Yale Law School. He was Associate Professor of Law at George Washington University from 1920 to 1924, resigning to become a member of the Committee on Appeals and Revenue for the Bureau of Internal Revenue. From that position he went to the University of Minnesota, where he was Professor of Law for several years, going from that institution to the University of Cincinnati Law School. Professor Lavery was also professor of Law at the Cornell Summer School of 1928.

Professor Horace E. Whiteside will teach the subject of Agency during the first summer term. Professor Whiteside is a graduate of the University of Chicago with the A. Members of the regular resident faculty will teach the following subjects during the summer session: Professor Spaulding, Personal Property; Professor Arnold, Evidence; Professor Moll, Domestic Relations and Quasi-Contracts; Professor Fryer, Personal Property, Common Law Actions and Mortgages; Professor Oppenheim, Real Property II; Professor Hunter, Torts.

CO-ED STUDENTS GET COMPULSORY CHAPEL

Western Reserve Women, Ashamed of Poor Showing, Request
Compulsory Chapel Rule

CLEVELAND, Ohio (IP).—Students of the College for Women, Western Reserve University, who did what critics of modern youth said was the impossible—asked for compulsory chapel—have had their request granted by a faculty committee.

The faculty was so stunned at first that it asked for time to consider the unusual request—a breathing spell to recover its senses, like skeptical legislators looking for a sleeper in a bill, the professors examined the request for possible "riders." Finding none, they granted the request.

Under the ruling granted by the faculty, chapel will be held four days each week, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and each of the 849 girls attending the college must attend at least twice each week. The students, however, have the choice of the days or they will attend.

Eighteen months ago the faculty erased the word "compulsory" from in front of the word "chapel." It was intended as a polite gesture that the faculty was in sympathy with and understood the ways of modern college students.

Then the attendance fell so low many students felt—and voted—that it had become a disgrace to the College for Women.

So next week Dr. Howell Hayden will say prayers again to rows of students, rather than to empty pews.

SCARAB INITIATES FOUR; SKETCH CLUB RESUMED

The Scarab, professional architectural fraternity, will initiate four sophomores, Dan W. Hutchison, James M. McHugh, Alfred H. Minno, and Edward R. Spano, into the chapter on March 21. Following the ceremony will be a banquet.

The Sketch Club, which had been inactive for some time, met again March 13, to resume its work in weekly sketches. Drawings are handed in at the close of the meeting, and judged the following week by Instructor Welsh.

The senior and junior problems, drawings for a Masonic Temple, were due March 18. The problem in Archaeology, a Greek Temple, is finished and ready to send to New York.
